

Northeast-Midwest Regional Prescribed Fire Workshop

Maine Field Trip – Additional Information

Date: Wednesday, July 9th, 2025

Time: 0900-1200

Location: Hard Scrabble Road, Hollis, ME (43°39'42.0"N 70°39'47.0"W)

Trip Max: 30 people

The trip will consist of walking approximately two miles over gravel and sand roads and trails with stops along the way to discuss various features. The walk will include uneven terrain, tripping hazards, ticks, and other biting insects typical of a trail in the Maine woods. Please bring water, snacks, sunscreen, insect repellent, binoculars, rain gear and anything else you may need. It is highly recommended that you wear long pants, and closed toe-footwear is required. The site does not have any facilities, i.e. restrooms, so please plan accordingly.

Be sure to include a good contact number and email in your registration in the event of unsafe conditions that might require us to cancel (e.g. excessive heat, heavy rain, thunderstorms).
